INTRODUCTION

Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor, designated by Congress in 2000, spans more than 500 miles across upstate New York. The New York State Canal System, including the Erie, Champlain, Cayuga-Seneca, and Oswego Canals, forms the spine of the National Heritage Corridor, providing a focus for water-based recreation and connecting more than 200 communities and historic sites across the region. The Erie Canalway Corridor also includes the 365-mile Erie Canalway Trail, which receives traffic volume of more than 1.58 million visits per year.

Capitalizing on the region’s rich and distinctive canal history, scenic beauty, and recreational opportunities for the benefit of the region’s communities and attractions is among the primary goals of the National Heritage Corridor. The Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor Commission and its non-profit partner, the Erie Canalway Heritage Fund, Inc. work in partnership with a number of federal and state agencies and non-profit organizations to promote tourism.

In addition, canal-related events are a major driver of visitation to the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor. The number of events has increased dramatically over the last 10 years and includes annual concerts, arts festivals, cycling and paddling events, celebrations of local foods and beverages, and events that focus on history and heritage.
OBJECTIVES

Refining the Visitor Profile
In 2017, Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor sought to refine its visitor profile, identify target audiences and tourism trends, evaluate and recommend marketing strategies and conduct an economic impact study of the canal-related events on the Upstate NY corridor. Level 7 Market Research was commissioned to develop, field and report on quantitative, qualitative, competitive communications and event economic impact research to recommend future marketing strategies. Visitor Research results are detailed in this report. Economic analysis is provided in a separate report.

The primary quantitative research was designed to answer these questions posed by ECNHC:
- What visitors (past and prospective) are most likely to visit the Erie Canalway?
- How effective are existing outreach/marketing materials in helping audiences find experiences here?
- What are the strengths and weaknesses of the existing materials?
- What are the best methods of reaching target audiences?

The tourism/economic impact research was designed to answer these questions:
- What are the tourism trends in the region that we can capitalize on?
- How can we quantify the role events play in bringing people to the Erie Canalway Corridor today?
- What is the economic impact of the canal-related events?
METHODOLOGY

• Level 7 conducted an online quantitative survey on behalf of the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor to understand past and prospective visitor interest in the Erie Canalway and evaluate effectiveness of existing marketing materials.

| Survey          | • 14 minutes
|                 | • Online      |
| Field           | • ECNHC & Partner Sources (NY Canal Corp, Parks & Trails NY and others) July 12, 2017 – August 23, 2017
|                 | • External Sources July 26, 2017 – August 7, 2017 |
| Qualifications  | • No one in household employed by a travel agency or booking firm
|                 | • US resident that has traveled at least twice outside of their community in the past year for a vacation or daytrip
|                 | • Has visited the ECNHC in the past few years or would consider visiting the ECNHC |
| Respondents     | • Total = 1,068 (3% Margin of error at 95% Confidence)
|                 | • ECNHC = 440
|                 | • External = 628 |
METHODOLOGY

• Visitors were split into two groups that answered different questions based on their experience with the ECNHC.

• Those who indicated they had visited in the past few years were asked about their recent Erie Canalway Corridor visit and prospective visitors were asked their impressions of the Erie Canalway Corridor and details about their most recent travel outside of the corridor.

• They were also grouped based on where they lived. Those considered to be “Insiders” indicated they lived in one of the 23 corridor counties. All others are labeled as “Outsiders.” External sample was targeted at prospective visitors living in NY, PA, OH, NJ, MI, VA, MA, CT, ME, DE, VT, NH and RI.

ERIE CANALWAY NATIONAL HERITAGE CORRIDOR

• Respondents were shown an image to help them determine whether they had visited any location along the 524 mile New York State Canal System in the past few years.
CANALWAY CORRIDOR REGIONS

• The following images were shown to help determine which regions they visited.

- Erie Canal Central
- Erie Canal West
- Cayuga Seneca Canal - Montezuma to Finger Lakes
- Oswego Canal
- Champlain Canal
- Erie Canal East
VISITORS BY REGION

- While those who live inside the corridor but haven’t visited recently were less prevalent, there was a good mix across visitors and prospects among those inside and outside of the Corridor.

Visitor Profile
OVERALL TRAVELER PROFILE

• Half of those surveyed lived in New York State and have taken 5 or more trips or day visits outside the community they live in within the past year.

• Nearly three-fifths (59%) have visited a location along the New York State Canal System or their surrounding communities in the past few years.
  o 4 in 10 have not recently visited but would consider a trip.

• Skewed older, couples and higher income household.
  o 51% are age 55+ (vs. 27% of the US population aged 55+).
  o 44% have a 2 person household (vs. 34% of US population).
  o 48% have an annual household income of $75K+ (vs. 40% of the US population).
RECENT CANAL VISITOR PROFILE

• Nearly two-thirds of Recent Visitors (64%) were New York residents compared to just under a third of Prospective Visitors (31%).
  o Recent Visitors were significantly more likely to live inside the corridor (55%) compared to Prospects (30%).
  o After NY, Recent Visitors were likely to travel from PA or NJ.

• Recent Canal Visitors skew older, travel in smaller parties and have higher income households.
  o 68% of Recent Visitors were age 45 or older.
  o 46% travel to the Canalway in couples; Insiders were more likely to travel alone.
  o 33% have an annual household income of $100K+ (vs. only 24% of Prospects and 28% US population).
RECENT VS PROSPECTIVE VISITOR

- Nearly three-fifths (59%) of respondents indicated they had visited the ECNHC in the past few years; the remaining 41% would consider a trip or haven’t visited recently.
- If someone had not been to ECNHC but would not consider a visit, they were excused from the study.

SIZE OF PARTY

• About half of all visitors traveled as couples.

• Recent Canal Visitors were more likely to travel solo while Prospects were more likely to travel in parties of 5+.
VACATION STYLE

- Sightseeing was by far the most preferred vacation style with over three-quarters choosing it in their top three types; it was ranked #1 by 30%, nearly double that of rest and relaxation.

Sightseeing - Visiting historic sites and museums, seeing some beautiful panoramas, taking in a farmer’s market.

Rest and relaxation – Sleeping in; staying at a nice hotel or bed & breakfast; eating at nice restaurants; reading a book or two.

Family time – Most of the time we’re traveling to see family or we’re traveling with family.

Nature enthusiast – Hiking, camping, wildlife viewing, canoeing, etc.

The adventurous type – Cycling tours, boating, paddling, climbing peaks and gorges, and coming away with a sense of accomplishment.

Playtime – We enjoy amusement parks, festivals, sports, or some planned activity. If there’s something to do, we want to do it.

RECENT CANALWAY VISITOR EXPERIENCE

• Almost half of Recent Visitors who live inside of the Canalway average about 2 trips per year, compared to just 10% of Outsiders.

  - Outsiders were most likely to visit only 1-2 times in the past 5 years.
  - Erie Canal East and West were the most popular destinations; Outsiders were most likely to visit the West region.

• Almost two-thirds of Insiders took a daytrip while Outsiders were 4x more likely to visit 4-6 days.

• Almost 60% of Insiders traveled under 60 miles to reach their Canalway destination, while most Outsiders put in 100 miles or more.

  - While Outsiders were significantly more likely to stay overnight (89%) given their amount of travel, almost half of Insiders (46%) didn’t return home to sleep either.
RECENT CANALWAY VISITOR EXPERIENCE

• Hotels were the most popular choice, for half or more who chose to stay overnight for at least some part of their stay.
  o Nearly one in five slept on a boat.

• Almost half (46%) traveled in couples; Insiders were more likely to go solo.

• The greatest average spenders on food, entertainment and lodging included Outsiders ($745), multi-day visitors ($764) and boaters ($865).
  o Outsiders spent nearly 3x that of Insiders ($269)
  o Multi-day visitors spent over 7x an average day tripper ($106)
  o Boaters spent about 2.5x more than festival goers ($357).
RECENT CANALWAY VISITOR EXPERIENCE

• The most popular activities enjoyed by over half included exploring the local restaurants, shops and museums/cultural sites.

• While average trip experience as a tourist destination was rated high overall (8 out of 10), Boaters as one of the highest spending segments had the worst experience.
  o The beauty, scenery and activities influenced the best experiences.
  o The lack of unique offerings in local towns including restaurants, hotels and access to bathrooms, fuel, walkable options took away from the experience for others. Some struggle to see it as a vacation destination.

• Three in five had a memorable experience, more so among Insiders.
REGIONS VISITED

• Erie Canal West and Erie Canal Central regions were most popular among Recent Visitors.

• Outsiders were most likely to travel to the Erie Canal West.
How many visits or vacations have you taken to the New York State Canal System, Erie Canalway Trail, or canal-related heritage sites in the past five years?

What made you rate it that way? Anything come to mind?

Would like to see the gaps on the bike paths completed. More bathrooms along the trails. Better traffic control on roads. Love the bike paths. Beautiful area. (Outsider)

It didn't get a 10 because of the hours of operation of lift bridges and locks. We want to visit the small towns and spend money there, but hours of operation, especially at night, hinder that! Especially for the price we pay for a 41' boat! (Insider)

Always a fun time, I bike between the little towns. I would rate the it higher if there were more facilities, water along the way. Please complete the gaps in the canalway, they are barriers to riding safely and enjoyably. (Outsider)

Fun, peaceful but not 10 because not great in the winter. (Insider)

At some of the villages along the canal, Lyons, for example, there needs to be more of a connection between the dock and the village. If Fairport and Pittsford are the examples, then all villages along the Trail should be like them. Palmyra is making a good start but could be better. Some of the biking trails are not off road. Finish the trail. (Insider)

It's a unique experience - renting a boat and spending a week on the canal. There is a little stress in managing a big steel ship (among other fiberglass boats) so that's why I didn't rate it a 10. We love it, but its not for everyone. (Outsider)

Wonderful facilities & scenery, but more funding is needed to make it a 10. (Insider)

DID ANYTHING STAND OUT?

- Three-fifths recalled something memorable or would recommend a specific feature as the Canalway’s best asset.
- This is significantly more so among Insiders over Outsiders.

Base: Recent Visitors (n=631)

Was there anything (such as an exceptional canal village/town/city or museum/cultural site that especially stood out to you) that made your trip especially memorable or that you would recommend as the Canalway’s best asset?
YES, WHAT STOOD OUT?

- The unique canal towns (and helpful, friendly people in them) and setting was most memorable.
- Pittsford, Lockport, Chittenango and Waterford were mentioned the most often.

YES, WHAT STOOD OUT?

The lock keepers were very friendly and willing to share information about the canals and communities. (Outsider)

"Port" towns embracing the heritage, especially Lockport, Brockport, Spencerport, Newark, Lyons, Sen Falls, Baldwinsville (Insider)

Every venue we have visited had some feature or people or local eatery that made an impression. (Insider)

Scenery, history, the locks. Visiting the harbor facilities at Waterford, Baldwinsville, St Johnsville, Phoenix and other canal towns. (Outsider)

People were knowledgeable and friendly, happy to answer our questions. Genuinely seemed to be excited and happy to pass information our way (we stopped in Amsterdam, Fort Hunter and Waterford). (Outsider)
PROSPECT INTEREST IN ECNHC AS A DESTINATION

• For those that have heard of it, they were most likely to say the beauty, outdoor setting or relaxing nature is what draws them, followed by the history.

• The idea of seeing or doing something new is attractive for those who are very interested in visiting the canal.

• Awareness is equally mentioned by nearly one in five Insiders as well as Outsiders.
  o They want to understand what is offered (recreation, activities, etc.)
  o They need more education on the Corridor itself.
  o They don’t see the Corridor as a vacation destination, they need examples to be persuaded about the opportunities.
PROSPECT INTEREST IN ECNHC ACTIVITIES

• Many of those who were not interested in visiting the Corridor along with Insiders simply didn’t know why – likely due to lack of awareness of options and activities.

• The vast majority of Prospects were interested in taking a Canal boat tour or dinner cruise, followed by visiting a historical/cultural museum or attending a festival.
  o Outsiders showed greater interest in shopping at the outlets as well as certain outdoor activities such as fishing, birdwatching or boating.
LENGTH OF VISIT

- Most Prospective Visitors spent 2-3 days on their last outdoor/cultural or family trip regardless of where they were from.

- Only one in five took a day trip, compared to over two fifths of Recent Canal Visitors.
DISTANCE TRAVELED

- Over two-thirds (68%) of Prospective Travelers are putting in over 100 miles to reach their destination, regardless of where they are from.

- This is significantly more so compared to Recent Canal Visitors (38%).
DID YOU STAY OVERNIGHT?

- The vast majority of Prospective Visitors chose to stay overnight on their last trip regardless of whether they live in the Corridor.
DID YOU STAY OVERNIGHT?

- The vast majority of Prospective Visitors chose to stay overnight on their last trip regardless of whether they live in the Corridor.
WHERE DID YOU STAY?

- Half or more who stayed overnight chose a hotel for at least some part of their stay.
- One in five or more slept at a friend/family members or camped.
SIZE OF PARTY

• The vast majority of Prospective Visitors traveled in parties of 2 or more, with nearly half traveling as couples.

• Insiders were slightly more likely to visit alone.
AVERAGE PROSPECT SPEND PER SEGMENT

- The average spent on food, lodging and entertainment was just under $800 a trip.

Base: Prospective Visitors (n=437)

During your last trip, please estimate the amount you spent on food, lodging, and entertainment for your family?
INTEREST (BEFORE SHARING CANAL ACTIVITIES)

• About a quarter of Prospective Visitors were extremely interested in visiting and just over half were somewhat interested.

In regards to the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor (including New York State Canal System, Canalway Trail, canal towns and sites) as a tourist destination, how would you rate your interest in visiting?

What made you rate it that way? Anything come to mind?

- Close to home so it's easy to visit, but more rural than I prefer for a vacation. (Insider)
- I live close by and have never taken advantage of seeing - have out of town guests coming and will consider this. (Insider)
- I'm interested but need more info and compelling picture of options and what visit might include. (Insider)
- I'm not sure if the waterway has what I need to make it fun for my family. (Insider)
- I kinda wanted to travel down the canal from one end to the other but I know that its been filled in places like Syracuse so its not really feasible. So it'd just be a day trip to one of the parts of it. (Insider)
- While I'm interested in returning to several of the places we rode through, there are other national destinations on my list and my vacation time is limited. (Insider)
The majority of Prospective Visitors (79%) expressed interest in taking a canal boat cruise, followed by visiting a museum/historical attraction or attending a festival by over three-fifths.

ECNHC
ECNHC TOP OF MIND

• History is the top overall mention when asked about the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor.
  o After history, Insiders are most likely to associate recreation and scenic beauty, while Outsiders are equally likely to mention scenic beauty and water along with history.
  o Recent Visitors often think of history and beauty, while Prospects (or those who haven’t been in awhile) think of water and history.
ECNHC KNOWLEDGE

• Average knowledge about ECNHC is barely above neutral – even Recent Visitors and Insiders don’t break a 7 on a 10 point scale.
  o Everyone could use more education on the ECNHC – and clearly shows interest in the history.

• While there seems to be acknowledgement of the significance as a national landmark, fewer are aware of the ability to travel the canal from Buffalo to Albany, particularly paddling on the water or cycling on the trail – more so among Prospects and Outsiders.
  o Festival Goers and Paddlers need the greatest education on the Canalway.
  o More than 2 out of 5 Boaters are unaware they can cruise the Erie Canal.
ECNHC FUTURE VISITS

• Interest in visiting the Canalway shifted positively among all Prospect segments after learning about the activities available, significantly so among Hikers/Bikers and Festival Goers.

• When asked about a future visit, almost half were likely to stay 3 days or more.
  o Insiders need the greatest push to consider more than a one day itinerary.
  o Boaters and Cyclists show the greatest interest in extended trips.

• One in five admit something is holding them back from visiting more often; up to a quarter of Outsiders have reservations.
  o The areas where ECNHC can influence increased visits include handicap accessibility (as well as sharing activities that require limited mobility), canal improvements related to safety and activity, communicating the activities and amenities available (restaurants, lodging, camping) as well as, public transportation options.
What first comes to mind when you think of the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor?
TOP OF MIND

- Insiders were more likely to associate the ECNHC with history and recreation.
- Outsiders more so thought of Water/Lakes along with the history and scenic views.
- As expected, more Outsiders were likely to be unfamiliar with the Canalway.

OUTSIDERS: WHAT KEEPS YOU FROM VISITING MORE?

Don't know anything about it. (Outside Prospect)

Distance, cold weather. (Outside Prospect)

I don't know much about the area yet but I'd like to learn more. (Outside Prospect)

I would like to be able to boat on the canal with family in a vessel that does not require a motor (because of the noise). Solar? Electric? I like the peace and quiet of the canal. Also, I want to be able to bike the whole length without having to share roads with cars in some sections. (Outside Visitor)

Where are the activities? Nothing posted on things to do??? (Outside Visitor)

More general info and the lack of ease in planning a trip. (Outside Visitor)

Distance, I live in VA but all of my family is in Attica so I'm "around" the Canal anytime I go visit them. My parents used to picnic by the locks when I was a kid, great memories. Very happy and excited about all that is happening with the ECT. (Outside Visitor)

Not wanting to leave my dog home. (Outside Prospect)
VISITOR VACATION PROFILE – ACTIVE VISITS

• A third of travelers overall chose “Adventure” as their vacation style, in line with those who chose more physical activities. Insiders, Recent Visitors and cyclists were more likely to choose Adventure.

  o Hiking and biking were the most popular active segments – with about two-fifths and a third respectively.

  o Prospects were twice as likely to show interest in paddling (42% vs 22% of Visitors who participated).

  o About 1 in 10 Visitors (12%) and 2 in 10 Prospects (17%) chose cycling.
I wish the website had an obvious link to an interactive map of the canal system trails and points of interest. There's probably one there somewhere but I haven't found it yet. (Outside Prospect)

Lovely scenery, great short trip with my wife. In particular we enjoyed the new additions that were added to Schoharie Crossing- my wife enjoyed the artwork in the visitor's center and I had a nice conversation with the Educationer on site). The new bridge in Amsterdam was also nice to stop and see. (Outside RV)

There are some nice attractions and communities west and central, but little east and on the Oswego and Champlain. The sad thing is there aren't enough canal attractions (museums, signage, etc.) that engage a visitor with the canal. (Inside, RV)

Finish the bike trail, encourage canal boat rentals, better signage where the trail is not complete. (Outside RV)

Maybe more social media campaigns to let people know about the area. Social media is where I find most of my sites and area. (Outside Prospect)

What accommodations are available and what is the typical length of stay and itinerary, is it on the way to another destination? (Outside Prospect)

I will look further into visiting. Is there a "best time" to visit? (Outside Prospect)
CYCLIST FEEDBACK

When I first did the CEC ride what struck me was that I was able to see so much WITHOUT A CAR. Traveling 400 miles...

By the way, back when I did those rides, I hadn't yet retired, and spend about $3000 each time. [Hotels/Motels/Inns & buying stuff along the way (all shipped home by the sellers)].

Wish they would finish connecting the trail.

For those of us cycling the ECT unsupported, it would be helpful to list grocery stores and outfitters closest to the trail. Every cyclist I spoke with along the way, we all agree, it is confusing understanding where we can and cannot camp.

There needs to be more advertising and consideration for the unsupported end to end cyclist on the ECT. I would love to have camped at Herkimer KOA but it's too far from the trail.

More trail camping please

We did the ERIE CANAL ride - from Buffalo to Albany. It was a great trip. Beautiful scenery, nice people, but a little sad to the poverty and empty towns along the way.

I enjoy the outdoors, but would take some convincing for the rest of the family.

I just finishing cycling entire ECT unsupported. Lower score due to lack of Canalway Trail signs in a few areas. Spent hours before trip creating my own GPS track based off the maps in PTNY Cycling the Erie Canal book, would have been very confused in some areas otherwise. Would have paid fee for an already completed one (gpx or tcx).
As a kayaker I was disappointed in accessibility along the canal. We had a paddle recently that we had to paddle 23 miles without a place to get out. I thought you were working on putting in more canoe/kayak boat launches. (Inside RV)

Need more information on the canal, towns, activities, recreation area, camping needs to be more common knowledge by being easier to find info on. (Inside RV)

Having started kayaking the entire Erie in 2008, there has been some effort by some towns/cities/villages to make it more kayak friendly. Rome, for example, has a beautiful park with amazing access. Since kayaks cannot travel as far as motor boats or even bikes, there is still a need for more frequent sites where kayaks can put in or take out, primarily for safety reasons (in the event of sudden storms, medical attention, etc.) (Outside RV)

I wonder where kayaking and SUPing is allowed. I haven’t actually seen them on the parts of the canal I’ve visited so I’m not sure. One day hope to do a self-tour boat or something. (Inside, RV)

Experiencing a journey that was made 200 years ago when the canal first operated; fantastic friendly people in all the towns on the canal. (Inside RV)
BOATER FEEDBACK

Free docking and boat friendly service areas. Like Whitehall NY showers and dock. Glenn Falls dock of the Hudson overnight. Bathrooms along the way. Canal publications helping navigation. (Outside RV)

Would like access to Lake Ontario at Rochester/Genesee River, later hours of operation on weekend evenings. (Start later in the morning). Work on the shoreline between Lockport and Tonawanda. (Inside RV)

Information for boaters is somewhat more difficult to find, especially outside of New York. I frequently talk to boaters from other areas who need to be informed about the canals. (Inside RV)

I would love to see the Cruising the NYS Canal System reprinted with updated information. (Inside RV)

Some activities by boaters while they are docked are inappropriate. There needs to be more supervision. The water needs to be kept clean. The algae turns people off. You need to make sure the Loopers (Great American Loop) know about the Trail, feel welcome, and have adequate services. They have big boats. (Inside RV)

We spent 3 months on the Canal in our boat. We traveled to so many festivals- music, food truck, beer, October fest, wine tasting. It was the most relaxing fun time. The docks/walls for boaters are so important. Power and water made it so Wonderful. Please don't let anything happen to the small towns. They need the boaters and we need them. We did find places that had good dockage but some things didn't work and the posted number did not know what to do. Bridge tenders and lock masters were awesome. (Outside RV)
I think that affordable boat rentals for out of towners to do trips on the canal would be great. These would be for people from around the world who have boating experience and a love of canals and little towns and exploring spending their whole vacation traveling by boat on the canal. Right now you have MidLakes Navigation with high end canal boats. I would like to see more rentals along the canal that have small cabin cruisers, houseboat at more reasonable rates. This would open up the adventure of the canal. You can only go so far in a canoe. People would be enamored with the length and different sites and towns on the Erie. I think it would unify the region and bring tourism to the next level. (Outside RV)

It seems to be underutilized by boaters and should be advertised/promoted nationally and internationally. (Outside RV)
