

Credits

These worksheets for students were written by Erika Sanger, Director of Education, Albany Institute of History & Art, using the resources of the Albany Institute's collections and library. This is the first time many of these images have been shared with the public.

Guiding curriculum resources include the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor's Preservation and Management Plan chapter on Interpretation, the New York State Education Department's Social Studies Framework, and Common Core curriculum guidelines in English Language Arts and Math for the Fourth Grade.

Funding for these worksheets was provided by the Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor and the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

The Erie Canalway National Heritage Corridor encompasses New York's canal system and the communities that grew along its shores. It's a place with stories to tell, great works of architecture to see, history to be learned, and hundreds of miles of scenic and recreational waterway and trails to explore. You can find out more about the activities and programs of the National Heritage Corridor here: www.eriecanalway.org

Beginning the Barge Canal, Waterford NY, c. 1920, salt print, Albany Institute of History & Art Library, 1993.010.10228P

ALBANY INSTITUTE OF HISTORY & ART

www.albanyinstitute.org

www.eriecanalway.org